[From the Chicago Times, Jan. 18.]

MORMONISM—THE MORMON QUESTION IN CONGRESS AND A PROBABLE FIGHT OVER IT—THE SAINTS MARSHALING THEIR FORCES. ELDER BURTON TO THE RESCUE—WHAT THE SAINTS PROPOSE TO DO.

Elder Robert T. Burton, the leader of the bloody crusade against the Morrisites, and who rejoices in the possession of multifarious offices in Utah, departed last week for the national capital. It is said by those who ought to know that the visit of Mr. Burton to Washington has in it some connection with the six bills upon the Mormon question now awaiting the action of Congress.

Brigham Young and his delegate, Mr. Hooper, although anticipating some action on the part of Congress, did not expect the numerous and overwhelming efforts which have been made by members to bring about a speedy solution of the Mormon question. Perhaps Mr. Hooper and his chief rested secure in the memory of past victories which they had achieved over Congress, and expected to gain future triumphs by virtue of past operations. Events have demonstrated, however, that if they entertained any such hopes they have been grievously disappointed. The failing health of Mr. Hooper has rendered him incapable of successfully combating, unaided and alone, the powerful influence against him. Hence the necessity of an efficient ally and the presence of Mr. Burton in Washington.

Mr. Burton is a man of considerable shrewdness and tact. As a major general in the Nauvoo legion he is well versed in a great many tactics, and members of foreign legations may probably have an opportunity afforded them for taking lessons in diplomatic movements of a high order, if they will make early application to the Mormon envoy from the harem court of Brigham Young.

Mr. Burton held the office of collector of internal revenue for the territory of Utah under the administration of President Lincoln, and he relies upon that circumstance to create a favorable impression upon the minds of friends of the deceased president in his favor. He is also a man who has been tried and trusted by Brigham Young, who, as a reward for his fidelity, has advanced him to the high offices which he now holds in the Mormon church. Such a man is never sent upon an ordinary mission. His services are too valuable at home, especially during the existence of a schism which is shaking Brigham's power to its foundation. The man who led on the hosts of Zion with rifles and artillery to imbrue their hands in the blood of a little handful of Mormanite dissenters cannot be very well spared in such a momentous crisis as that which threatens the fate of his superior. To be sure, a crisis is also pending at Washington; but the distinguished abilities of Maj. Gen. Burton would appear to better advantage and be called into more useful requisition at home, where he could appear at the head of his legion, with a cross in one hand and a sword in the other, to put down the vile heretics who dare dispute the infallibility of Brigham Young.—Whether he can sustain the role which he has assumed at Washington equally as well, yet remains to be seen. What effect the efforts of himself and Mr. Hooper may have upon the members can probably be better ascertained when the bills upon the Mormon question are called up in committee of the whole.

Of the Mormon missionaries who arrived here from Salt Lake City, Henry McEwan and Samuel D. Sirrino still remain to edify and instruct the saints. A general feeling of discouragement is felt by the missionaries at the poor success which they meet with in making converts. Much of this they attribute to the newspaper correspondence and reports. They are particularly bitter against the Sun, which they claim has grossly misrepresented them in many respects. They say that it is not their fault if, through poverty, they are compelled to meet in the third story of a building with a liquor and oyster saloon below.

The baskets of oyster shells they regard as a very good substitute for railings to prevent people from going off the steps sideways on a dark and stormy night. But few strangers attend their meetings, and they are drawn thither by a curiosity excited by the newspaper reports, to see how the Mormons look, act, and worship, without having to take a journey to Utah for that purpose. The elders have not yet been able to present a well authenticated case of conversion on the part of these visitors. It is stated that on account of the extreme poverty of many saints here a collection must be taken up every Sunday to defray expenses and support the poor. It seems rather curious to talk about the poverty of the Mormons, when their leaders are rolling in wealth and luxury in Utah, through the means drawn from these poor saints in the shape of tithing. As, however, every one will be governed by his own notions in this respect, it will be useless to comment upon the subject further. The elders also deny that they are about to make any extra efforts to propagate their doctrines by building places of worship.

They expect to accomplish more in a quiet unobstrusive way, through conversations, and standard Mormon works, than by preaching in public. In this there is wisdom; for the sermons of many of them are quite unintelligible. They ramble from one subject to another, never explaining any one thing so that a person of even ordinary comprehension can understand it. They never attempt to reason without falling short of the point which they wish to make; and logical deductions are a thing unknown to them. The attention of many may have been excited by their preaching to investigate their claims, but no conversions ever followed as the result of their so-called sermons.

A young lady once married a man by the name of Dust, against the wishes of her parents. After a short time they lived unhappily together, and she returned to her father's house; but he refused to receive her, saying, "Dust thou art, unto Dust thou shalt return."

An ill-matched couple were always quarrelling. One day the wife pointed to a cat and dog that lay together by the stove, and said:

"Look at them; they don't quarrel!"

"Ah," growled the husband, "tie them together and then see."

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 440 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 1870.

BOUNDLESS CORRUPTION.

Mr. Calhoun once said, "It seems to be the order of Providence that a people may recover from any other evil, except that of boundless corruption." From piracy, robbery and violence they could recover, but not from insate corruption.

No country ever sunk so deeply in political corruption, in so short a time, as the whole South has done, and this has been brought about by the influence of peripatetic, unprincipled, thieving carpet baggers.

In this State it has been openly said, and generally believed that Littlefield had bought members of the Legislature to favor his corrupt schemes.

This Littlefield is on terms of intimacy with the Governor, Judge Settle, and, indeed, with most of the State officials. It is understood and believed, that he and the Governor agree in regard to public policy; that they converse freely and without reserve to each other; that Littlefield is a great admirer of the Governor, and that His Excellency entertains such a favorable opinion of Littlefield that he made him State printer, and President on the Western N. C. Railroad, and that Littlefield had such influence over him as to induce him to change front in regard to the lease of the N. C. Railroad.

Let it be remembered that the Governor has confirmed all these things by his silence, and by his continued favor and friendship towards Littlefield.

We heard recently that Littlefield gave to certain persons his individual bonds for some $45,000, and that the Governor's friend and representative in the North Carolina Railroad, that superlative scoundrel, Gen. Laflin, had, by some means, gotten a large amount of these bonds, which he sold to A. W. Shaffer, Commissioner in Bankruptcy, and that Shaffer had sued Littlefield on them. It was further said that Littlefield, in his answer, pleaded that the notes were given for an illegal purpose and without value received.

To satisfy ourself of the the truth of these rumors and charges, on Friday last we went to the Clerk's office in this city, and lo! there it was, sure enough. It is true, Laflin's name does not appear there except it be represented by the nom de plume of "James Smith."

It appears from the Record that Littlefield gave his note for $3,000 to "James Smith," the note passed through the hands of John T. Deweese, the carpet-bag member of Congress from this district, and Deweese sold it to Shaffer, and on it Shaffer sued Littlefield, the maker.

Read the copy of the Record, as we give it below; it will show the boundless corruption practiced in this State. Let the Legislature inquire into this matter, and let Laflin, who it is currently reported, is afraid to show his face at the State Capital, be expelled from his seat, together with all others who were participants of Littlefield's $45,000 bounty.

The apathy and indifference of the people and the Legislature, to these outrages and frauds, is one of the most alarming features of the degeneracy of the times. Almost every day developes some new fraud and villainy, some new evidence of official corruption, and yet the people, who are the victims, seem afraid to even demur, and the perpetrators hold up their heads and even laugh at the success of their own villainy.

Well may Governor Holden and the carpet-baggers want armed negroes to awe quiet tax payers into submission. The Governor must be aware of the corruption on the part of his friend, the State printer and President of a Railroad. Yes, he is aware of it, for he alluded to it in the Radical caucus last Thursday night. He may even attempt to shake him off, not because of his corruption and swindling operations, but because he has been found out. But, Governor, you shall not shake him off so easily.

We know to what extremes you can carry your audacity in such cases; we know what villains you have pardoned out of the Penitentiary; we know something of the villains with whom you are so intimate. Go on; hug Littlefield to your bosom as you will; God willing, we will ventilate you and him, until you are understood.—We intend to be as active in exposing, as you and Littlefield and the "Ring" have been active in plotting the dishonor and ruin of the State.

We now charge you to dismiss this swindling scoundrel from the service of the State. The law gave you the appointing power, and you appointed him State Printer, we now, in the name of the people, demand that you discharge him, else the people will place you in the same category with him and Prince Laflin.

But to the Record:

I.

Superior Court of Wake County:

A. W. Shaffer, vs. M. S. Littlefield, James Smith, Jno. T. Deweese, } Complaint.

The Plaintiff alleges, 1st, that on the 7th day of December, 1868, the defendant, M. S. Littlefield, by his promissory note, promised to pay to the order of the defendant, James Smith, three thousand dollars, one day after date.

2nd, That the said James Smith endorsed the same to the plaintiff.

3rd, That no part of said note has been paid. The plaintiff therefore demands judgment for three thousand dollars, with interest from the 7th day of December, 1868.

A. W. SHAFFER.

Sworn to and subscribed before me.

J. N. BUNTING, Clerk Superior Court.

II.

SUPERIOR COURT, Wake County.

AUGUST TERM, 1869.

A. W. Shaffer, Pltff. vs. M. S. Littlefield, James Smith, John T. Deweese, } Answer.

The defendant, M. S. Littlefield, answers to the complaint.

1st. That he did sign such note, but it was given to a ficticious person, and without consideration.

2nd. That the allegation is not true that James Smith endorsed the note to John T. Deweese, for that no such person was then, or is now, in being as James Smith.

3rd. That he received no consideration for the note mentioned therein; that it was given to a fictitious person for an illegal purpose, and was passed due when traded for by plaintiff.

M. W. CHURCHILL, Agent of M. S. LITTLEFIELD.

M. W. Churchill, the Agent of M. S. Littlefield, makes oath that the facts stated in the foregoing answer of his own knowledge are true, and those otherwise stated he believes to be true.

M. W. CHURCHILL.

Sworn and subscribed, as Agent for M. S. Littlefield this 15th Nov. 1869.

There is the record! Alas, for James Smith! Alas, for Laflin! Alas, for Deweese! Alas, for Holden and his State Printer! Alas, for the times and the public morals! Alas, for the poor old State of North Carolina! Alas! Alas! Alas!

There were more bonds than the above given by Littlefield—we are on their track.

PROFESSOR MOWATT.

This renowned Professor, late of Chapel Hill, has put up for us a pair of shoes, gaiter style, which would do credit to a Philadelphia Professor of Shoeology.

As the Professor has considerable influence at Chapel Hill, having improved the understandings of some connected with the institutions there, we suggest to him how he can greatly benefit the village of his former home.

First, to induce some country Church to extend a "call" to Senator Pool's brother Solomon, and thus rid the "College" of him.

Second, to get Dobbin and Francis, of this city, to extend a call to Pilgrim Ashley's brother-in-law, Martlin, to occupy a bench in their shop here. Having been reared and educated so near to Lynn, Massachusetts, he is bound to know how to make a good peg-bottomed brogan. Labor is no disgrace, and it may be that Martlin was raised to shoe making, and abandoned it to take a Professorship in the University.

Third, induce Professor Brower's fifty negro pupils to extend to him a call to return to his school down by the Railroad.

Fourth, induce Whitted, the great tobacconist of Hillsboro' to send out Judge Settle's cousin Patrick to his old business of peddling tobacco.

If Professor Mowatt can effect these changes he will immortalize himself, render the State great service, and purge the University of the carpet-bag gangrene that has settled upon its vitals and threatens its destruction.

IMPEACHABLE.—Mr. Durham, while speaking against the Governor's war bill in the House, on Wednesday night last, mentioned an incident that ought to arouse every thoughtful citizen of the State to a sense of the danger impending over us, from the partial administration of the law by those into whose hands the scales of Justice have, in some instances fallen.—The incident was this: That at a recent term of the Superior Court for Northampton county, while a trial was going on before the Court, the presiding Judge addressed a note to the counsel for the defendant, telling him if he would ask the Court to charge the Jury in a certain manner, he would do it, and it would clear his client.

This statement was made in open session on the floor of the House of Commons, and we suppose the speaker had assurance of its truth from those cognizant of the facts.—Such undignified and unjudicial conduct on the part of a Judge on the Bench, ought, it seems to us, to subject him to impeachment, and to being deposed from the exercise of the functions of that important position. When such things are done by so high a public functionary, what may we not look for in ignorant and prejudiced partisans who occupy subordinate positions?

BROTHER SITES of the Salem Press shakes his hoary locks at us, because we mildly suggested that the Press under his editorial associateship was coming round tolerably right. He speaks of his age and our youth.

All a misconception, brother Sites, the notice of the revival of the Press was written by an old acquaintance of yours, one who had worn the editorial harness before you were done wearing short coats.

But, go on, young man, the indications are that you are still improving the Press.

On motion the House adjourned.

The following protest was offered in the Senate, on the 15th inst., and ordered to be spread upon the Journal:

The undersigned, by authority given by the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, in Sec. 19, Art. 2, to "any member of either House of the General Assembly," to dissent from and protest against any act or resolution, which he may think injurious to the public, or any individual, and have the reasons of his dissent entered on the Journal of such House, does hereby, while entertaining a decent respect for the opinion of a majority of the Senate, who differ with him, solemnly protest against the passage of an act by this body on yesterday, on its third reading, entitled "an act incorporating the North Carolina Homestead Association," for the following reasons:

1st. A rule of the Senate provides, that bills of this nature, shall be acted upon on Saturday only, and as it was passed on Monday, without a "suspension of the rules," and in despite of that objection, raised by this protestant, the act carries with it the embarrassment of this fact.

2nd. The Constitution of North Carolina provides, Art. 8, Sec. 1, that "corporations * * * * shall not be created by special act, except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the Legislature, the object of the corporations cannot be obtained under general laws."

This General Assembly has enacted a general law, under which, in the opinion of the undersigned, the incorporators in the aforesaid act, could have organized and operated. This act, incorporating the "North Carolina Homestead Association," is, therefore, in violation of the above recited section of the Constitution, which says, "such bodies shall not be created by special act," and further it is a wrong of vast magnitude, because the Senate, at its present session, has denied similar rights and privileges, to other parties, who desired to incorporate; and, further still, it is a wrong, because it unjustly discriminates between these incorporators, all of whom, save one, are non-residents of the State, non property holders among us, and, of course, non-tax payers, and our own citizens, by relieving and securing the former, from the restrictions, limitations and liabilities, which will be imposed on the latter, who may be compelled to incorporate under one general act.

3rd. The Constitution, Sec. 14, Art. 2, provides that "the General Assembly shall not pass any private law, unless it be made to appear, that thirty days notice of such application to pass such law shall have been given."

Now that this Homestead Association act is a private law, no one, not even its most ardent supporters or the corporators named therein will deny. It is for the benefit of individuals, (alas! a very few,) for a certain locality or localities, has all the elements of individuality in it, and is a private law. No notice of the bill was given, as is required by the organic law of the State, hence, it will be without force, and it is submitted, that even if notice had been given of one hundred days, still, it must be made so to appear to the General Assembly otherwise such legislation is void.

To recapitulate:

1st. It was passed in violation of the rules of the Senate.

2nd. It is in violation of the Constitution, Art. 8, Sec. 1.

3rd. It is in violation of the Constitution, Art. 2, Sec. 14, and, hence, the incorporation is only a bogus concern, without legal creation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. LOVE.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me to say a word or so in behalf of the unprotected medical profession. All classes are provided for except the Lawyer and Physician. The former has it in his power to protect himself, he keeps the game in his own hands, and this is considered all right. The physician's calling prevents him from such protection, it is at present a mere debt of honor, with the exception of the few intelligent and honorable citizens. The game is entirely a grab one, and he who dodges behind his protection is considered by the masses, morally, as well as legally justifiable. Let the physician present such a patron with his bill for services rendered on his bed of affliction at which time his whole trust is in his God and the doctor. Yet as soon as he is restored to health and usefulness, he thinks of any thing else except his God, physician and the liquidation of the medical bill for services rendered. Frequent by the worst word he can say against him for its presentation is too good; ridicule and ridicule, and does all manner of things, except fulfilling the golden rule, do unto others as you would have them do unto you, pay your just debts, and sin no more.

If the merchant is called upon to credit out his groceries, dry goods etc., or the farmer is called upon for corn, pork, potatoes, etc, by one whose family are suffering pangs of extreme hunger, and refuse, nothing is thought of it, it is all right. So public opinion, and is refused, what is the consequence? The public masses look upon it as sacrilegious, turn the cold shoulder to him, and shun him as they would the apes. The mechanics and laborers are well protected. How is it with the physician, who ranks in intelligence with the best of society, and in usefulness equal to any save the good minister, whose congregation generally protects him.

The laborer and mechanic return home from their daily toils and enjoy their nocturnal repose with a certainty of protection, and non-interference. Is it so with the physician? Echo answers, no. The medical man's life is a fluctuating one, he is summoned by day, and by night, rain or shine, heat or cold and whether he is renumerated or not.

In these improvised times he cannot have much hope of pecuniary reward, and as a general thing little is placed to his credit from the promptings of sympathy and gratitude.

Alas! no protection, only away down yonder in the 6th grade creditors along side of the undertaker and that disagreeable thing, his spade. Now if we view this in a moral stand point, we can only come to the conclusion that the protecting power expected each Esculapius to slay his relations, friends and neighbors right and left, and on all occasions, whether jew or gentile, secundem artem, if he expects to procure the necessary means to supply the wants of the inner man; or else they suppose he is so transmorafied by some peculiar principle of his profession, as to have learned to live on air and water.

The life of the physician is one of great labor, physical as well as mental, full of anxiety and replete with ingratitude. Yet his protection is a mere nothing, every quack merchant and nostrum vender comes in competition with him, and the druggist free of taxation while the laws of North Carolina, tax them directly and indirectly without protection.

May we not hope that they will remove injustice and at least place us on equality with the mechanic and laborer.

Herrings, those good old North Carolina "small-bone bacon," a large quantity, by Davis & Brother, Norfolk, Va.

Sensible to the Last.—Messrs. Leach Brothers desire our opinion in regard to the good qualities of "Townsend's Best', chewing tobacco, from the bonded warehouse, New York, a very liberal sample of which has been sent round for the purpose of testing. After subjecting it to a very thorough test, in the usual way, we are prepared to pronounce it mild, pleasant and agreeable to taste and smell, old and mellow; in short, perfectly "O. K.," and the best article of the kind we have come across since our supply of "cygnet down' gave out; and we think that any one who will call at Leach Brothers' and procure a sample, will find it as we represent it, and that all chewers of "the weed," who prefer a good article, will be pleased with it.

Give us the Facts.—We published in Saturday's Daily and Semi-Weekly Sentinel, and the same will appear in Tuesday's Weekly, a communication from Oxford, signed "P. A. L.," which is a most timely and sensible article, and we thank the writer for furnishing us with it for publication.

We ask our friends throughout the State to gather and give us similar statistics for their respective counties. They will serve as a striking commentary on the Radical experiments of State and county governments, and show what a costly article justice is to our citizens under the present regime.

Danford's Kerosene Lamps.—We would direct special attention to this new invention of lamps, the advertisement of which has appeared for several days in the Sentinel. Mr. Smith, who owns the right for this State has samples of these lamps on exhibition at the Yarborough house, where they may be seen burning in the afternoon and evening.

They are used without chimneys, emit no unpleasant oder, and are said by those who have seen them burning to give a most brilliant light—equal to that of gas. They burn the common kerosene oil, without danger of explosion.

Mr. Smith is offering the right for the entire State, or for separate counties, for the sale of this new lamp.

The Standard says it didn't receive the Chatham meeting proceedings, and Whitaker says he didn't receive them; we say we sent them there by William Rigsbey, one of our office boys, and Rigsbey says he carried them. He was certainly gone about long enough to go to the Standard office and back, and reported that Mr. Whitaker said they didn't or wouldn't publish such proceedings. We also sent the Granville meeting proceedings to Mr. Pike, and they were not published. Now, it is our decided opinion, if the Standard had received forty copies of the Chatham proceedings it would not have published them.

The First Shad made its appearance in our market on Saturday morning, price only $2,50 a pair. We hardly ever eat the first shad or the first watermelon of the season.

Mt. Airy News, is the title of a new paper just started at Mt. Airy, N. C., T. H. Boyles, editor and proprietor. It seems the design of the publisher to develope the resources of his section, and if he has any politics we can't discover it. It is a paper of good size and well printed.

New Paper in Charlotte.—We have received the first number of "The Southern Home," published in Charlotte, N. C., by Gen. D. H. Hill, at $3.00 per annum, issued weekly. It is what every one who knows the editor would expect, a dignified, lively, interesting southern family newspaper, and is destined to have an extensive circulation.

Tested by Time.—For Throat Diseases, Colds, and Coughs, "Brown's Bronchial Troches" have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches have brought out many worthless imitations. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

A Body and Mind Disease.

Such is dyspepsia. The stomach and the brain are too intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other, so that dyspepsia and dependancy are inseparable. It may be added too, that irritation of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by irritation of the temper.

The invigorating and tranquilizing operation of Hostetter's Bitters is most powerfully developed in cases of indigestion. The first effect of this agreeable tonic is comforting and encouraging. A mild glow pervades the system, the chronic uneasiness in the region of the stomach is lessened, and the nervous restlessness which characterizes the disease is abated. This improvement is not transient. It is not succeeded by the return of the old symptoms with superadded force, as is always the case when unmedicated stimulants are given for the complaint. Each dose seems to impart a permanent accession of healthful invigoration. But this is not all. The aperient and antibilious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary in importance to its tonic virtues. If there is an overflow of bile the secretion is soon brought within proper limits, and if the biliary organ is inert and torpid it is toned and regulated. The effect upon the discharging organs is equally salutary, and in cases of constipation the cathartic action is just sufficient to produce the desired result gradually and without pain. The Bitters also promote healthy evaporation from the surface which is particularly desirable at this season when sudden spells of raw, unpleasant weather are apt to check the natural perspiration and produce congestion of the liver, coughs, and colds. The best safeguard against all diseases is bodily vigor, and this the great Vegetable Restorative essentially promotes.

DEATH OF HON. THOMAS RUFFIN.

On Tuesday, the 18th inst. the Hon. W. H. Battle presented to the Supreme Court, the Resolutions in regard to the death of the late Thomas Ruffin, adopted at the meeting of the Bar, held on the 17th inst., and which we have already published.—On that occasion, he made the following remarks:

"May it please the Court, your Honors will recollect that soon after the meeting of the Court yesterday the death of the late Hon. Thomas Ruffin was announced, and the Court as a mark of respect to his memory, immediately adjourned. You will recollect that notice was then given that at 3 o'clock in the afternoon a public meeting of the members of the Bench, the officers and members of the Bar of this Court, and the Judge and members of the Superior Court of Wake County, would be held in this room for the purpose of taking such further action as the occasion might seem to require. It is known to you that the meeting was held, and that a report and resolutions, prepared by a Committee appointed for the purpose, were presented to the meeting and unanimously adopted. As the Chairman of the Committee I was charged with the duty of presenting them to the Court at its next meeting, and to request your Honors to order them to be spread upon the minutes of the Court.

Before proceeding to the performance of this duty I beg leave to remark that this sad occasion carries our recollections back to the organization of the Supreme Court in the year 1819, and to the distinguished men who were then connected with it.—The Bench was illustrated by the legal learning and fine literary taste of Chief Justice Taylor, the genius of Judge Henderson, and the strong, plain, common sense of Judge Hall. They were aided in their decisions by the arguments of a Bar of the greatest ability. At that time, and for some years afterwards, the business of the Court was conducted by gentlemen who were called the Bar of the Supreme Court, and the practice was confined to them with almost as much exclusiveness, as was formerly that of the Common Pleas in England to the Sergeants at Law. It was a rare instance that any other member of the profession ventured to appear before the Court, for it required no little moral courage to do so. The members who then composed the Supreme Court Bar were regarded as equal, if not superior, to the members of the Bar of the Supreme Court of any other State in the Union. Your Honors will at once acknowledge the justice of this high encomium, when I recall to your recollection the names of Archibald Henderson, William Gaston, Thomas Ruffin, Henry Seawell, Gavin Hogg, Moses Mordecai, Joseph Wilson, and James Martin. All these great men except the one whose memory we are now commemorating, have long since passed away. It was the fortune of the survivor to live, until full of years and honors, he has been called away, and on yesterday his mortal remains were consigned to the tomb. In his long life he had greater opportunities than any of his compeers to connect his name indissolubly with the judicial annals of North Carolina. In 1829 he was elected a Judge of the Supreme Court of the State, and in 1833 he became its Chief Justice. In that high office he presided for nearly twenty years, and during that time he was called upon to deliver opinions in many great causes, involving important, difficult questions of constitutional, as well as of the common, and statute law. These opinions have spread his fame beyond the limits, not only of this State, but of the United States. We are informed that the great Judges of England have read his judgments and spoken of them in high terms of admiration. It is as a tribute of respect to such a man, that I beg leave to request that the report and resolutions be ordered by your Honors to be placed upon the records of your Court."

Having concluded, Mr. Battle read the resolutions aloud to the Court; and the Chief Justice replied in the remarks which were published a day or two ago.

This closes the chapter; and thus has departed from among us, the great, the good, the wise Judge and patriot, Thomas Ruffin;—he whose name was revered at home, and honored abroad by all who respect the virtuous, love the good, or admire the great.

He died "in a ripe old age." His race of life was bravely run, and his well-earned fame, nobly won.

An honest man—a patriotic and virtuous citizen—a wise, upright, and incorruptible Judge; his crowning glory was his moral excellence, and his christian purity.

In his declining years, this good and venerable man has stood among us "a shining light in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation"—a beacon-light in a dark, degenerate and corrupt age—a bright and noble example of inflexible honesty, unsullied virtue, rare integrity, and zealous patriotism, in a country, and at a time when patriots are few in number, when virtue and integrity are no longer regarded by men in public station—when all sense of decency and honesty is forgotten in the godless scramble for pelf and place—when the term, honesty, has become a bye-word and a term of reproach rather than of praise!

But he has gone from among us! An honest man is dead—a great spirit is quenched in death—a noble soul has winged its flight back to its Maker, its mission on earth accomplished! Thomas Ruffin, Sr, lives no longer! A great man has gone to the silence and darkness of the grave! a great light is extinguished! and the dark portals of the tomb, have closed forever upon the mortal remains of one of North Carolina's noblest, most faithful, and most distinguished sons! Another name is emblazoned high on the bright scroll of fame! Another glorious star is added to that resplendent galaxy of illustrious names, that is North Carolina's chiefest pride, and the crowning glory of her fame!

And well may the old North State, in these her days of distress, weep the loss of such a man. For, she has within her borders, but few honest public men to spare; now that "the wicked rule and the people mourn," now, when the fountains of justice are corrupted, when ignorance, dishonesty, and treachery, triumph over virtue, intelligence and patriotism, when bribery and corruption predominate in "the councils of the nation," where impartial justice, strict fidelity, and incorruptible intergrity once prevailed!

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxuriions and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county, no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation during the day and evening at the Yarbrough house.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

HENRY'S CARBOLIC CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR, OR BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all inhumities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villanous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without disease, and both he were infected alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and knew not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparties a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye.
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all sides.

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbia, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE

KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, it perfectly burns, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell when burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each cap is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two-hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,387 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
